

POSTCARD BOOK REPORT

Create a 2 sided postcard (4 x 6) written from the perspective of one of the characters in your book.

Side 1: Picture or illustration on the front of the setting, an important scene or episode from the book.

Side 2: Written message

Include the following questions:

- Where are you?
  - How did you get to your destination?
  - Why are you there?
  - Is it a pleasant place to visit? Why or why not?
  - What have you learned from your journey?
-

EXAMPLE

Side 1:

Side 2:

Hogwarts Castle from Harry Potter and the Chamber of Secrets by D. K. Rowling

Place
Your Stamp
Here

Dear Hagrid,

Ron, Hermione, and I finally made it to Hogwarts. Missed the train, but we "borrowed" Ron's dad's flying car. What a trip! Hogwarts is the same as ever. Snape's out to get us. McGonnagal is piling on the work. Malfoy gives everyone the creeps. What did I learn? It's crucial to be loyal to your friends whether you're fighting evil or just trying to get all your homework in on time. Right.

Your friend,
Harry

To:

---

---

---

---

*IMPORTANT!

Be sure to include in some way the book's problem or conflict! Remember the goal is for you to demonstrate -using different formats--that you understand the main point of the book.